

Nevada Servicemembers Civil Relief and Relief for Federal, Tribal, or State workers Eligibility Verification Form

If you are a servicemember or the dependent of a servicemember, or if you are a federal, tribal, or state worker or a household member of a federal, tribal, or state worker, you may be entitled to protections pursuant to the Nevada Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (NVSCRA) and/or NRS 116. Protections for federal, tribal, or state workers are in effect at the commencement of a government shut down and for a period of 90 days after the date on which it ends. Absent a court order, the Association may not initiate a foreclosure action against your Unit if you are delinquent in paying any obligation owed and you are eligible for these protections.

For purposes of verification of eligibility, the Association is legally entitled to the information requested below. To alert the Association to your eligibility for these protections, you MUST fill out and return the form below. Until eligibility has been verified, collection action will continue per the Association's collection policy.

Do NOT submit the form via fax or email. To safeguard sensitive information, submit the form in person or via mail in an envelope marked "EVF."

As used in the NVSCRA: "Active Duty" means the full-time duty status in the active uniformed service of the United States, including members of the National Guard and Reserve on active duty orders pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1209 and 1211. "Dependent" has the meaning ascribed to it in 50 U.S.C. § 3911. "Deployment" means the movement or mobilization of a servicemember from his or her home station to another location for more than 90 days pursuant to military orders. As used in AB 393, amending NRS 116, "Federal Worker" means an employee of a federal agency or employee of a contractor who has entered into a contract with a federal agency. "State Worker" means an employee of a state agency or an employee of a contractor who has entered into a contract with a state agency. "Tribal Worker" means an employee of a qualified Indian tribe or an employee of a contractor who has entered into a contract with a qualified Indian Tribe. "Household member" means any person who is related by blood, marriage, adoption or other legal process and is currently residing with a federal worker, tribal worker or state worker affected by a shutdown
